Dedication to Progress

In time to come, Adrian students and alumni will remember 1956-57 as the year of the "Breaking of the Barriers". Two new dormitories arose to the break the barrier to comfort represented by antiquated residence facilities. The Library became more than adequate, yea, an outstandingly equipped and staffed academic and cultural resource. Scholastic standards advanced mightily to bring our Institution to the forefront among American Church-related colleges. Student and faculty morale and achievements brought pride and further prestige to the campus, and growing respect for Alma Mater in every area where her name and achievements were heard.

And so, we dedicate this Mound of 1956-57 to the New Adrian College, grateful in the knowledge that need no longer wait for the morrow. Tomorrow can only provide its abundances.

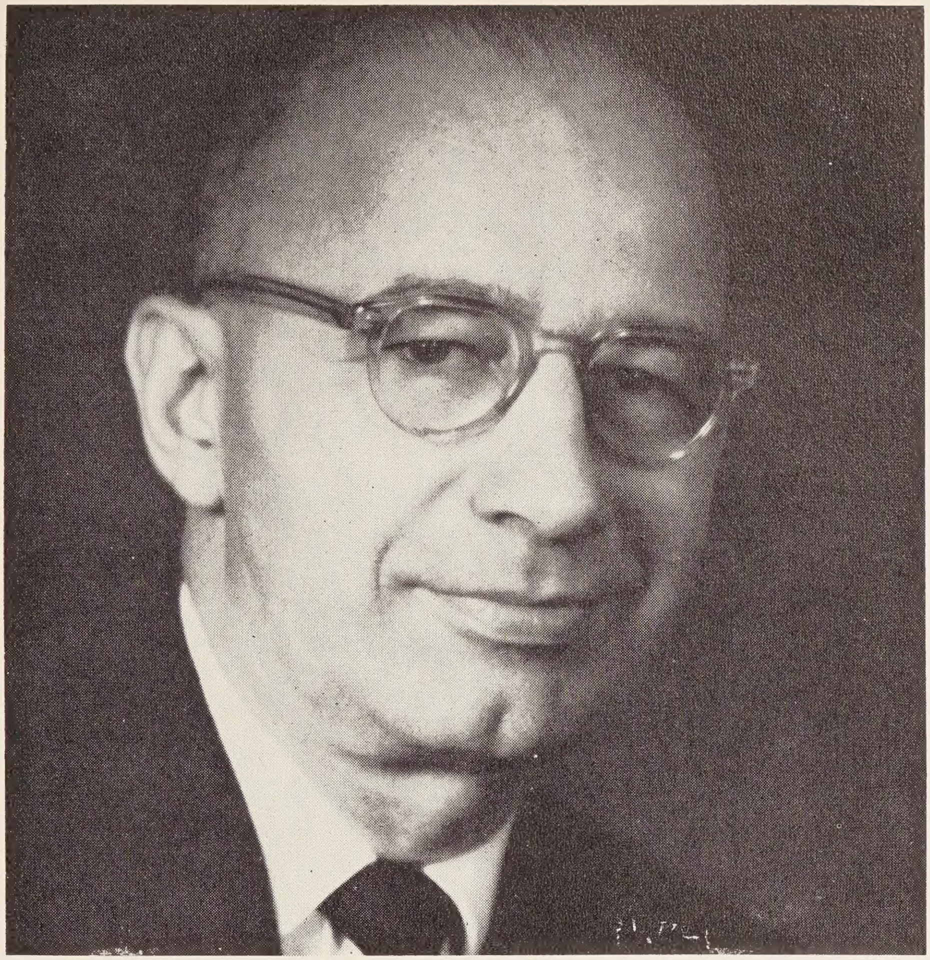
Adrian MICHIGAN

A city of 25,000 known for its outstanding agricultural surroundings and rapidly developing industrial area, is fast becoming an educational center. New structures rising on the campus of Siena Heights College For Women and Adrian College, a coeducational institution, attest the growth of these two schools where modern scientific methods taught in religious surroundings are contributing to the future of America.

In Memorium



Everett L. Ridge

Although Everett L. Ridge passed away in his home on September after a long illness, he will long be remembered at Adrian College. The Ridge Gymnasium, already stands as a monument to the memory of his generosity to Adrian College.

Born in Lovington, Illinois, December 26, 1899, Everett Ridge moved to Michigan with his parents and was brought up in the farming area near Britton and Holloway, Michigan. He attended the Britton schools and in 1918 graduated from Adrian High School. After serving in the Navy during World War I he enrolled at Adrian College and received his degree in 1923. At Adrian he won letters in football and basketball. He was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. Post Graduate work at the University of Michigan prepared him for a teaching career in which he worked for three years before entering into a business partnership in Three Rivers, Michigan. Two years later the Ridges moved to Manituwac, Wisconsin, where he started the Ridge Motor Supply company and thus began a long and successful industrial career.

Freshmen Camp

For the first time this year, Adrian College planned a freshman camp. All freshmen and exchange students spent two and a half days at Judson Collins Methodist camp. Between moments of sheer fun such as an all student variety show, followed the next night by an all faculty one, the campers sandwiched in conferences with the counselors. The object of the camp was to acquaint the new students with the faculty and with each other. Upper-classmen were present as student counselors. The entire program was pronounced a success by everyone concerned, and plans are in operation for another.

The Circle K Club is a service organization, similar to, but not an intergral part of Kiwanis. It is a character building group which offers service on the campus, to the school, and to the community.

This year the Club sponsored a community work program, sold mums at the Homecoming game and gave the proceeds to the National Community Fund. Three thousand "Get Out and Vote" leaflets were passed in town for the national election. A Christmas party was held for the Girls' State Training School, the club received state acclaim for this fine event. A Polio dance was sponsored and the funds were turned over to the March of Dimes. In the spring a square dance was held at the Girls' Training School. Two car washes were used to replenish the club's funds and aid it with its services.

The officers for the year were Dick Drews—Presdent, Walt Wiesman—Vice President, Ray Joles—Secretary and Frank Tursak—Treasurer.

German Club

The German Club was started about twenty years ago as a small group of faculty and townspeople who wished to keep up their practice in speaking the German language. Soon a few of the best German students were invited as guests. As the German department grew in numbers, the club changed to a student club, "Der deutsche Verein". Faculty members and German speaking people of the community also attend the meetings. All groups take part in the programs, giving talks on Germany, German music, short plays and sometimes movies on films. Two of the outstanding features at the present time are the Christmas meeting and the German banquet in the spring. Kathryn Kishpaugh is president and Phyllis Fox vice-president and treasurer. The faculty sponsor is Miss Hope Lowry.

The purpose of this organization is to promote a spirit of unity on the Adrian College campus by supporting all-college functions. We sponsor all-college functions, support intra-mural athletics and provide representation on the Student Council for our members.

Membership in this organization is open to all full-time women students who do not belong to any sorority. Each member is requested to pay fifty cents dues a semester, and members receive honor points for their participation in our organization.

Lettermens' Club

The Letterman's Club is an honorary organization composed exclusively of men who have won Adrian College varsity letters. The aim of the "A" club is to promote more social activities and support the student body as a whole.

The club has sold pop at football games and also looked after the kennel after basketball games.

Each year the Lettermen award the Robert Harsh Memorial Trophy to the most outstanding Adrian College athlete.

This trophy is in memory of Robert A. Harsh, class of 1949 who lost his life in a plane crash while enroute to the Korean battle front. He was serving with the United States Navy at the time of his death.

Spanish Club

The Sociedad Hispanica was founded about twenty-five years ago by a group of students who felt the need of further opportunities for the practice of the Spanish language and to meet Spanish speaking people of the community. Two outstanding events of the year are the Spanish Banquet in the fall and the Mexican dinner in the spring. The Sociedad Hispanica is registered with the Pan American Union from which it receives news bulletins and information. The president is Harold Anglin, the vice-president and treasurer is Gail Crayton. The faculty sponsor is Miss Hope Lowry.

World Staff

The Adrian College World, which is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press, supplies the Adrian campus with a clear picture of student life, activities, special occasions, and up to date news on sports and club doings.

The World office is one of the busiest places on campus, serving as a workshop for the student staff and also as a journalism laboratory.

Under the advisorship of Mr. Waldron Stewart, the student staff puts out a paper every other week along with corresponding with other college newspapers from Rhode Island to California.

One of their primary functions on campus is taking part in the chapel services. ADX has held several record dances and a co-recreational night in the auditorium during the college year.

The officers for the college year were as follows: Delores Francisco—president, Nancy Stevens—vice president, Rosalyn Tursak—secretary, Eileen Bovill—treasurer. The advisors for the group are Mrs. Viola Miller and Miss Betty J. Sanford.

Choir

The Adrian College Choir completed another successful year under the direction of Dr. James Spencer.

The choir has taken part in various religious activities and programs such as the annual Christmas concert during chapel service in December. The choir also traveled to Hudson in March to take part in a lenten service. More enjoyable, however, was the annual choir tour in early April. The choir sang in schools and churches throughout the lower penninsula of Michigan. The trip packed with fun, thrills, and sightseeing was an experience the members will long remember.

The Wesley Fellowship, formerly the College Christian Fellowship, is a student religious organization composed mostly of Methodist young people but supported also by students of others denominations. It conducts weekly meetings on Sunday evenings in Downs Chapel or in the homes of the advisors.

The Wesley Fellowship has its own cabinet and is a co-ordinate part of the total religious program of the college throughout its representation on the Religious Life Council. The Fellowship is affiliated with the Methodist Student Movement, the National Christian Student Association, and the Michigan Christian Student Convocation.

In addition to its program of religious activities and service projects, the Wesley Fellowship sponsors special speakers, panel discussions, religious films, and social times. Contributions were made this past year to Hungarian student Relief and to the World Christian Student Federation. The Fellowship plans this year to hold its first annual banquet and program.

Officers of the Fellowship are William Card, president; Frank Bartell, vice-president; Frances Gerber, secretary-treasurer; Vernon Kohns, program chairman; Carolyn Doelle, publicity chairman; Ruth Dryer, worship chairman.

Major Cole Association

The Major Cole Association, named for the famous Major James H. Cole, who was at one time associated with the work of evangelist Dwight L. Moody, is an organization composed of pre-ministerial students and others interested in part or full-time Christian service.

The group meets each Wednesday evening for worship services, experiences in Christian fellowship, discussions, and business. Deputation teams, organized by the Association, are available to churches in the near and surrounding territory. The Association also engages in social activities and fields teams in the various athletic events, such as: touch football, intramural basketball, volley-ball, and softball. An annual banquet, featuring an outstanding speaker and program is held each spring.

Officers of the Major Cole Association are Frank Lawrence, president; Vernon Kohns, vice-president; Lee Long, secretary-treasurer; James Smith, chaplain; and Jeffrey Moore, sports chairman.

Early in the school year the name of this group was changed from Religious Council to the Religious Life Council with an executive committee being added. The committee is composed of Dr. Howard Emrick, the group's advisor and several other administrative and faculty personalities.

The members of the council have attended several youth conferences during the past year. Two main ones were the Michigan Methodist Student Movement Conference at Kalamazoo and The Student Christian Conference Convocation at Calvin College.

The council is responsible for all the chapel services and assemblies during the year. They ask various organizations to have the services as well as contacting outside speakers.

The main activity of the group this year was the Religious Emphasis Week held in February, which they sponsored. Dr. Hoover Rupert, minister of the First Methodist Church in Jackson spoke in the chapel services, and in various classes.

The Religious Life Council has played an important part in making the spiritual aspects of Adrian College worthwhile and interesting.

The group is headed by Ken McGowan. Other officers are: Lilah Shiffler, Vice President; Janet Hull, Secretary, and James Smith, Treasurer.

It appears that the intramural program is expanding to meet the needs of a growing institution such as Adrian.

Besides being the oldest sorority on campus, Chi Psi Omega also holds the title for having the largest alumni. The sorority was founded Oct. 13, 1945 by seven girls who felt a need for a social sorority on campus. It has maintained its purpose well, which is to develop character and personality intellectly, morally and socially and to establish and maintain a bond of friendship among its members.

There were seven actives returning this fall and on Sunday, February 17, five pledges were initiated into the active chapter. Those going active were: Irma Richman, Carol Ward, Lillian Sakamoto, Sylvia McCracken and Maxine Isaacson, who was voted "Outstanding Pledge." The sorority also has initiated seventeen pledges this year.

Chi Psi Omega's sorority room is decorated with such trophies as All College Sing trophies for three consecutive years, Home-Coming float winner and Intramural Sports.

Among the various activities of the Chi Psis this year were the fall and spring teas, closed parties, hayrides, hot dog sales, Valentine Party with the Tau's, annual Dog Patch Drag, theatre parties and highlighting all activities was the annual Spring formal.

Officers of Chi Psi Omega are: Martha Pollard, President; Mary Dumire, Vice President; Gerri Bassett, Secretary; Ruth Dryer, Treasurer.

Alpha Tau Omega has the honor of being the oldest fraternity on campus, having been founded December 17, 1881. The National ATO Chapter was founded September 11, 1865 and Adrian ranks the second oldest chapter still in existence above the Mason-Dixon line.

In 1947 the college constructed Cornelius Memorial House for the chapter This house, which has recently been redecorated, remodeled and refurnished is the headquarters of 36 active members.

The Alpha Tau's have received four National Fraternity scholarship awards since 1947, the last award being in 1955. The most recent of all awards is the National Convention Award at Mackinac for 75 years of continual existence and the 1956 homecoming trophy for the best display.

Celebrating its 75th anniversary this year the ATO's held a formal dance at the Tecumseh country club with Mr. Ernest C. Harris, national treasurer of the Fraternity present. Other activities included many open house parties, closed parties, annual Christmas party for the Eastern Star Children, pledge formal, the annual spring formal held in Toledo, and an open reception honoring their house mother, Dr. Lillian Preston who received her Doctor's Degree this year.

Officers ruling the house this year are: Dave Lott—Worthy Master; Walter Brandt—Scribe; Jack DeWaard—Exchuquer; Dick Drews—Chaplain.

Michigan Alpha at Adrian College, founded in 1887, was the forty-ninth chapter to be founded and is one of the oldest established chapters above the Mason-Dixon line.

The activities of the fraternity are chiefly social, but they also endeavor to promote scholarship, good will, and brotherhood among their members and to give active support to matters of general college interest.

Among the activities for the year was the annual spring formal held in May. The highlight of the year occurred when the chapter received its own house on Michigan Avenue.

Officers: William Grant—Eminent Archon, Howard Heffron—Eminent Deputy Archon, William Shannon—Eminent Treasurer, Louis Armstrong—Eminent Recorder, Thomas Bergman—Eminent Correspondent. The fraternity's advisor is Professor Frank Lovrich.

Serving as a governing board for the fraternities and sororities on Adrian's campus is the Inter-Fraternity Council. The Council is composed of two representatives from each of these groups and is advised by Dean Brumbaugh. This year the I.F.C. presented their annual winter dance, featuring "An Evening in Paris" on February 9. Bill Carter and his orchestra furnished music for this delightful evening and decorations were carried out in a French theme. The Council was also responsible for setting up rules governing rushing procedures and bidding. Several events involving all sorority and fraternity members were planned by this group.

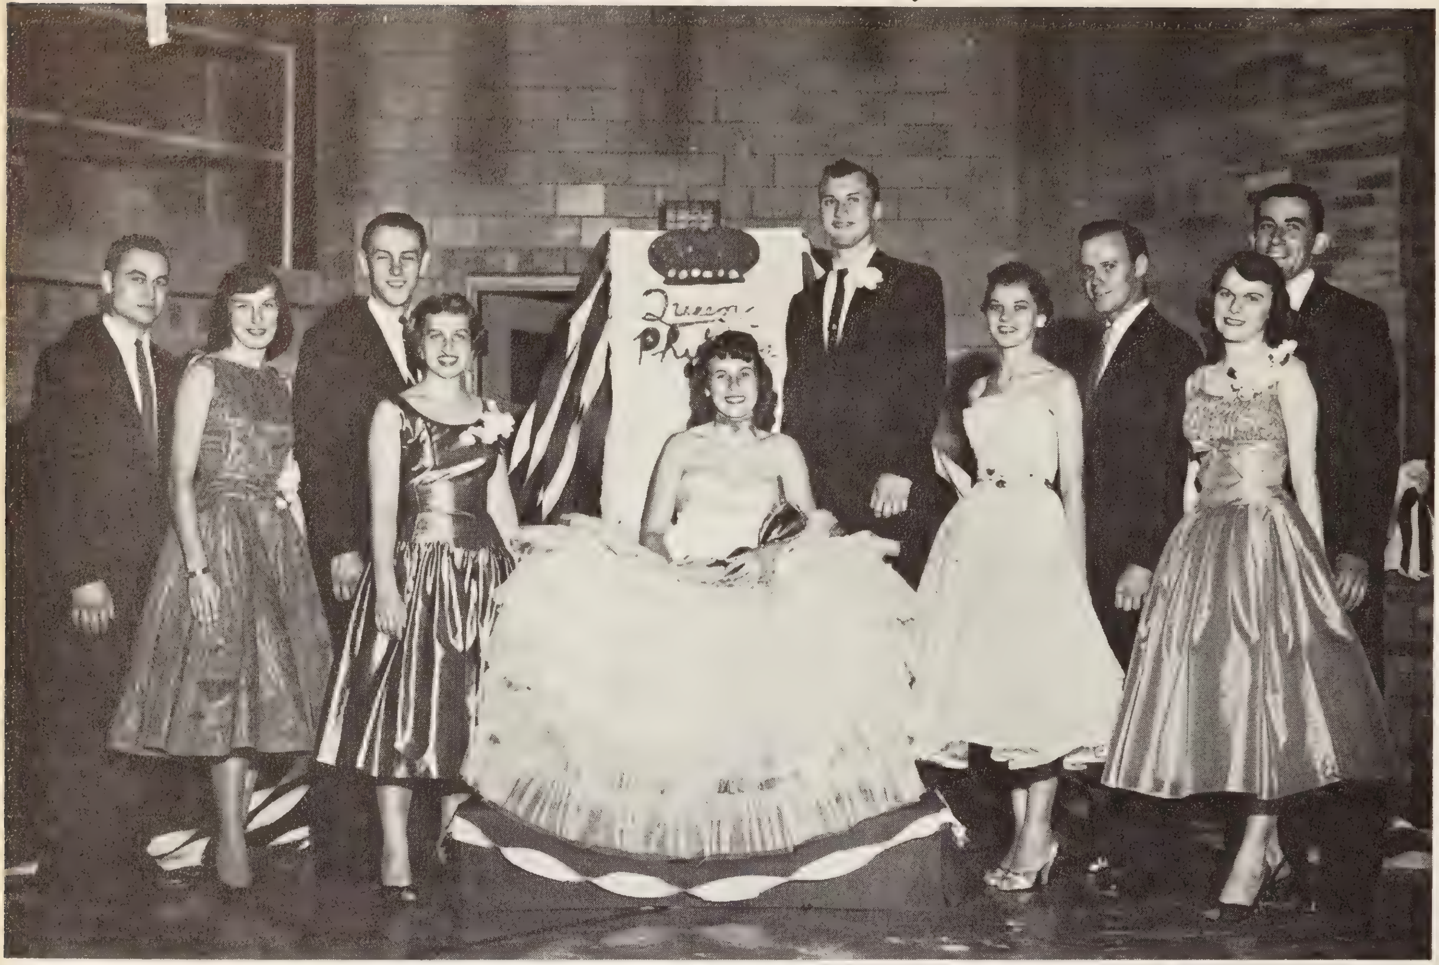
Homecoming



Homecoming is the highlight of the year, when alums, friends, and students come out in full color. The main event is the homecoming court, which is introduced at half time of the big game.

The Homecoming court was represented entirely by Delta Phi Theta Sorority this year. The five girls chosen to reign at homecoming were picked by the members of the football team. They were: Jane Sebring, Phylis Fox, Gail Crayton, Jo Ann Greenler, and Judy Gebauer. The names were presented to the student body and on a ballet. The student body, then, voted for their queen.

Half-time was very exciting, as the court came through the gates in new hardtops. Mayor Cobo, of Detroit, crowned the queen, Phylis Fox, with a crown of chrysanthemums. She was given red roses and a beautiful trophy.

The escorts for half-time were: Mike Barett, Walt Brandt, Peter Nims, Dick Drews, and Howard White. The beautiful queen and her court reigned over the dance that evening. The queen and her court, with their escorts had their pictures taken to complete a very enjoyable and memorable evening.

Play Production

Under the direction of Dr. Lillian E. Preston, there have been many enjoyable plays presented both on and off the Adrian College Campus. The first play of the season was "The Bishop's Candlesticks" based on Les Miserables. It was presented on October 24, 1956, in Downs Hall. It was a religious drama.

The second production was "Nothing But The Truth" presented in Ridge Gym on November 15, 1956. This play had central staging.

On November 30, 1956, an original musical comedy by Dr. Preston, "Adrian, 2098 A.D." was presented in Downs Hall.

A group of players traveled to Lyons, Ohio on February 10, 1957, to present "The Case of the Missing Handshake" for the Lyons, Ohio Townmeeting. The cast was entertained by Reverend and Mrs. Dick, before the production. The play was a "socio-drama."

A Chidren's drama "Cherry Donuts" was put on during the week of March 25-30th, 1957, at the various grade schools in Adrian.

On April 10 and 11, "The Man Who Came To Dinner" was presented at 8:00 in Downs Hall. For this production, Dr. Preston secured all new staging.

In Chapel on April 15th, "The Alabaster Box," a religious play was presented.

The final play of the year was the "All Campus Musical Revue" in Ridge Gym, May 3. The revue was also written by Dr. Lillian E. Preston, with the assistance of the Adrian College Players' band and Mrs. Austin's modern dance group.

Radio Work Shop

The Radio Workshop class under the direction of Dr. Lillian E. Preston have broadcasted Disk-Jockey shows from WABJ. These disk-jockey shows were presented every Tuesday thru Friday nights at 8:30-9:00 p.m. Each member of the Radio Workshop class had a chance to play "D.J." This class consists of Lee Engwall, Paul Geer, Larry Elliott, R. S. Cheesebrough, John Fountain, and Dick Drews.

Saturday evenings from 7:30-8:00 p.m. the Radio Workshop class has a feature show which presents everything up to and including political speeches.

In the near future Adrian College will have its own radio station in the Little Theater. This station will be able to broadcast all over the campus, including the Alpha Tau Omega House, and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House. This will be operated on a closed circuit.

A new console has been purchased and plans to purchase two turntables, three speakers, and three or four pairs of earphones are in the making. "We will be able to do anything a small station can do—right here," quote Dr. L. E. Preston.

UN Trip

L-R M Elliott Miss Cargo J Ferry R Drews W Brandt M Papenhagen J DeWaard

A United Nations Seminar Trip was initiated this year from December 8 thru the 14th. The purpose of the trip was to provide students from our History and Political Science Departments with the opportunity to study and investigate the structure and operations of the United Nations. The group forms somewhat of a nucleus on campus for further interest and understanding of the United Nations. Since the trip the participating students have been busy speaking to civic and church groups all over Lenawee County.

The group this year was most fortunate to be studying the U.N. at such an existing time. The issue before the General Assembly was a 16-power proposal to censure Russia for her intervention in Hungary—demanding she withdraw troops at once. The group saw the Hungarian (puppet government) delegate walk out of the General Assembly. Other highlights of the trip were watching the Security Council accept Japan as the 80th member nation and a personally conducted tour through the Russian Mission at 680 Park Avenue.

The trip was felt to be so successful this year that it is expected to be an annual event.

It appears that the intramural program is expanding to meet the needs of a growing institution such as Adrian.

A versatile program has been promoted to meet the recreational needs of Adrian's student-body. This program consisted of soccer, touch-football, basketball, handball, volleyball, badminton, softball, and bowling.

The Faculty Terrors added color by participating in all phases of the program. The Terrors succeeded in taking first place in basketball against some very tough competition. The A.T.O. Golds seemed to be their only setback.

Bob Gillis, along with coaching football, headed up this remarkable program and rightly deserved a word of thanks from all.

In the major autumn sport the Bulldog eleven failed to bring home a trophy or sport a winning season record. Under the novice leadership of Coach Bob Gillis, the gridmen compiled a three win and five loss record.

However the loyal rooters enjoyed individual stand-out performances from junior end, Leon Harper. Harper gained a first team berth on the all-state, small college and the all-M.I.A.A. squads.

Guard Duane Hall received individual recognition in receiving an honorable mention on the all Methodist football selection.

In spite of these two standout performers, tackle John Wyler was elected to receive the M.V.P. award for steady line battering play.

Coach Stan Albeck, in his first year at Adrian, was handed a coach's dream in starters Henry Hughes, Leon Harper, Jim Keller, Bob Ohrman, and Bruce Stephens.

The Bulldog cagers had their sights set on representing the Michigan district in the N.A.I.A. play-offs in Kansas City.

At times hopes dimmed as the boys failed to cop the M.I.A.A. crown. Henry Hughes highlighted the season as he bowed out after four years of performances. Henry led the quintet to a convincing record of 15 and six, as he set the pace for the M.I.A.A. scoring for the third consecutive year and gained first team berth on the all-M.I.A.A. five.

Failure to gain the top position on the conference level, could not kill the possessed, ambitious quintet as they turned in two sparkling games against Detroit Tech and Central Michigan. These wins entitled Adrian to represent Michigan in Kansas City.

In the Kansas City tourney Adrian met first round defeat in losing to Tennessee A. & I., who later captured the N.A.I.A. crown.

All Adrian fans will long remember the 56-57 season.

Basketball

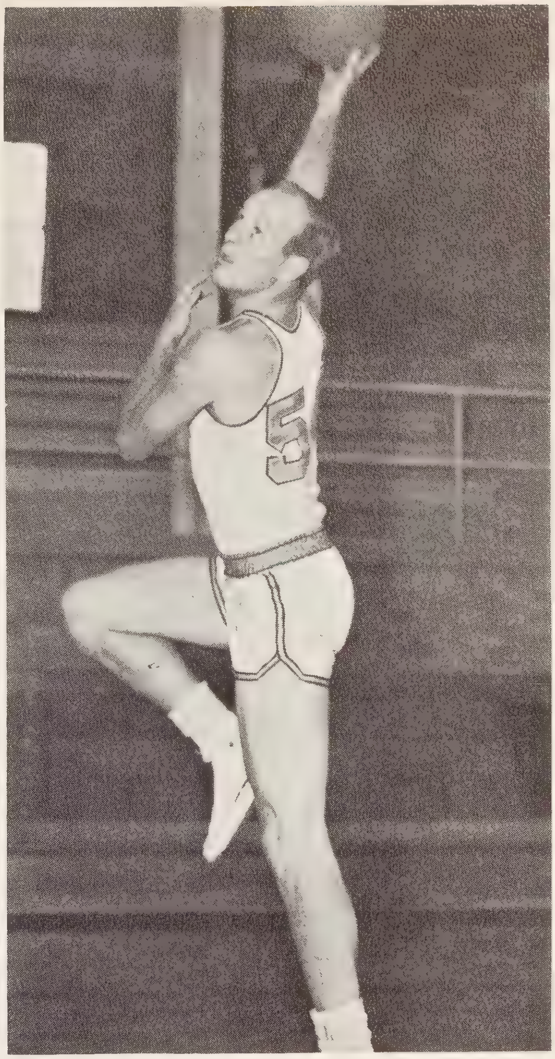
Henry Hughes

"The greatest basketball player in the history of Adrian College." These are the words that have been used to describe Henry Hughes, outstanding basketball player for the past four years at Adrian College. Hughes holds 15 college records. Among these are most points scored in a single year (607), most points in a single game, (50), and most points scored in three and one-half years of competition, (1821). Hughes was named to the All-MIAA first or second team for four years. Three of the four on the first team. Next basketball season number 48, Henry Hughes' number, will be sorely missed by students and any college fans in the vicinity. An outstanding athlete, he will be remembered as a fine gentleman as well.



Bob Ohrman

One of the best all around athletes ever to attend Adrian College will be graduating this June. Bob Ohrman has excelled in football, baseball, and best of all basketball. He has scored 1190 points in three and one-half years of competition. While a freshman in 1951, Ohrman broke the existing school record for the most points scored in one season. In 1952 as a sophomore he broke his own record. Returning in 1955 after two years of duty in the armed services Ohrman again returned to the basketball courts to become one of the outstanding play makers and defensive players in Adrian's history. His scoring honors had been taken over by Henry Hughes but Bob's motto seemed to be "We don't care who scores them as long as we win." Bob's number 54 will also be retired along with Henry's 48. Neither number will be worn again by any athlete at Adrian College. The graduation of the two indeed marks the passing of an era.

Along with a neophyte coach, Dr. Howard Emrick, the Adrian squad is cast mostly of newcomers. Many lettermen have failed to return, leaving almost all positions open.

However, this does not lower Adrian's potential ability, or chances of having a successful season. By the time this annual is released we should know the results.

'57's finest finishes feature Bonderite under the paint

Sleek new bodies. Longer, lower. Dramatic new colors. New features by the dozen on every 1957 line.

There's one fine feature, on many of the great cars offered by the industry this year, that is a carry-over. That's the surface treatment for metal used to anchor the paint and preserve showroom appearance through years of service. Bonderite!

Since 1929, Parker Rust Proof's Bonderite has contributed to the pride and satisfaction of car owners by helping to build more durable, longer-lasting finishes. Bonderite anchors the paint, resists corrosion, keeps finish failure from spreading around nicks and scratches.

Most automobiles made in 1957 will look better longer because of Bonderite under the paint. Bonderite—Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.
